Originally from Fresno, California, Rebecca Schach earned her Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from the University of California, Davis. Following college, Rebecca worked with the Fresno Sheriff's Foundation for Public Safety in coordination with the Marjaree Mason Center, Clovis Rotary, Toys for Tots program, and United Way Fresno. Rebecca graduated from McGeorge School of Law in 2015. While in law school, Rebecca clerked for California Third District Court of Appeal Justice Ron Robie.

Prior to joining Dowling Aaron, Rebecca practiced in immigration law representing individuals before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Rebecca is fluent in Spanish.

In her free time, Rebecca enjoys trying new restaurants and spending time outside chasing a golf ball in the sand trap.
